Undergraduate Research and Experiential Learning Committee

Purpose
CSU Office of the Provost offers grants, known as the Undergraduate Research and Scholarly Activities Grant (URSAG), for undergraduate students engaged in research, scholarly and creative activities under the direction of faculty.

The UREL committee performs the following tasks in liaison with the Office of the Provost:

- Determine criteria for evaluating URSAG grant applications.
- Inform all CSU students and faculty about the availability of the URSAG grants and invite grant applications at least once each semester.
- Evaluate grant applications and award grants.
- Notify all applicants about the outcome of their applications.
- Ensure students meet the conditions set out in the grant award letters.
- Produce a report for the Office of the Provost summarizing each semester’s URSAG awards.
- Provide guidelines for project reports submitted by students, and archiving of these reports.

Membership

1. Kyle Christensen, Assistant Professor, Political Science
2. Alicia Tatum, Assistant Professor, Health, Phys. Ed. & Exercise Science
3. Cindy Henning, Director, Honors Program, Associate Professor, Mathematics
4. Tina Butcher, Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education, Center for Academic Advising
5. William (Jim) Owen, Professor, English
6. Samuel Abegaz, Assistant Professor, Chemistry
7. Paula Adams, Assistant Prof, Library
8. William (Bill) Edwards, Professor, Communications
9. Mohamed Chouchane, Assistant Professor, Computer Science
10. Kirk Heriot, Associate Professor, Marketing & Management
11. Hannah Israel, Assistant Professor and Gallery Director /Art
12. Iris Saltiel, Director, Faculty Center for Enhancement of Teaching & Learning /Office of the Provost
13. Shamim Khan, Assoc. Professor, Computer Science (Chair)

Meetings
At least twice every semester